27 June 2019

The Foods of Matariki Competition

Matariki is the Maori name for the star cluster known as Pleiades. When Matariki reappears in our dawn skies, around June or July each year, it heralds the start of Te Tau Hou Maori—the Maori New Year.

Matariki is a time to gather with family and Friends. To celebrate Matariki and highlight fantastic indigenous food, Rotorua is proud to host The food of Matariki Competition, where several caterers will be creating bite sized canapes using indigenous ingredients in a contemporary way. The canapes must include two indigenous items from this list: pikopiko, horopito, kawakawa, riwai, kumara, rewena paraoa, tuna, koura, titi, kina, tarakihi, kuku, moemoe, manuka, paua.

Sunday 30 June 2019 at the Rotorua Farmers Market.

Follow the Rotorua Farmers Market Facebook page for more information on how to be a judge!!!
