Outside the Walls Guided Tour

The walking tours are a great way to learn about some of the lesser known stories and geothermal nature of the area. Tours are about 1 – 1.5 hours and take in the fascinating history of the area including historical buildings, gardens, art and Māori carvings, and the Bath House where Rotorua Museum is housed.

Tours are Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday: 11am, 1pm and 2pm

Saturday and Sunday: 11am and 2pm

Meet at the top of the steps in front of the Bath House.

Don't forget!! DAYLIGHT SAVING TIME ENDS THIS SUNDAY! Clocks should be turned backward one hour this Sunday at 3am!

Friday 2 and Monday 5 are PUBLIC HOLIDAYS
