Learn How to Make and Perform Poi

Wednesday 4 March 3:15pm At school

We invite you to join a special cultural activity where you will learn to make your own poi and perform with it.

Poi is a traditional Māori performance art. It involves swinging soft balls on strings in rhythm, often with song. It is used to tell stories and express feelings. We hope you can join this fun cultural experience.

This week we say goodbye to Shifu Sakamoto

Next week we welcome
From Japan
Tomoko Hineno
From Taiwan
Peilun Lee
